

REGULATION TO PARTECIPATE IN THE INTERATIONAL BIENNIAL OF HAMMER FORGING

1. The Scuola in Fucina association organizes the Sixth edition of the international biennial of hammer forging on 29th-30th-31st May 2020.
2. Anyone who wants to enter the competition has to submit the inscription within the 30th of April 2020, sending an email to the Scuola in Fucina association at the address scuolainfucina@tiscali.it. The inscription will be closed as soon as the required number of participants will be reached (24 teams).
3. The biennial of forging allows between 2 and 4 people for each team, without any difference on gender.
4. The cost of the inscription is 50.00 €, refundable on the event day.
5. Overnight staying, breakfast, and dinner are included for 2 people (if moving from more than 50 km) and also a stand (size: 3x3).
6. The competitors will have to create a work with the theme provided 30 days before the event in a maximum of 3 hours.
7. It will be assigned to each participant: 1 hammer and 1 furnace every two workstations, coal forge, anvil, tongs, bench vise, minimum equipment and iron suitable to the work to be crated.
8. The needed iron and the support to complete the work can be provided only by the organization (please file the "sagomario" attached). The "sagomario" and special needs must be reported to secretary during the inscription.
9. The work must be realised only with iron, insertions with different material are forbidden.
10. Participants can use their own manual equipment apart of welders and a grinding wheel .
11. A president of the jury will evaluate the works.

REGULATION FOR EXHIBITORS OF BIENNIAL OF FORGING:

1. Exhibitors that want to show theirs iron works or artifacts will obtain a stand along the demonstration site; stands will be available until they will be exhausted.
2. People who will participate to the competition will receive for free, if requested, a stand where they can expose their works.
3. The exhibition stand will be assigned in May from the organizers, there won't be the possibility to choose the stand.
4. The opening time of the exhibition will follow the schedule of the event.
5. All the exhibitors have to pay a fee of 50.00 €.

The organization will be available for any information. You can find the application form (Scheda di iscrizione) on the official site www.scuolainfucina.it . In order to participate, the form has to be filled with your information and sent to scuolainfucina@tiscali.it within the 30th April 2020 .The organization has agreements with hotels, B&B in Bienna and near area. For the event will be set up a refreshment stand. There is an area equipped for campers.

Contacts:

Piergiulio (IT) (+39) 328 2875590

Camilla (EU) (+39) 345 3929027